NABORS ANNOUNCES OFFERINGS OF COMMON SHARES AND MANDATORY CONVERTIBLE PREFERRED SHARES

Hamilton, Bermuda, May 9, 2018 — Nabors Industries Ltd. (NYSE:NBR) (“Nabors”) announced today that it has commenced concurrent underwritten public offerings of 35,000,000 of its common shares and 5,000,000 of its new mandatory convertible preferred shares, series A (the “mandatory convertible preferred shares”). In connection with the common shares offering, Nabors intends to grant the underwriters a 30-day option to purchase an additional 5,250,000 common shares. In connection with the mandatory convertible preferred shares offering, Nabors intends to grant the underwriters a 30-day overallotment option to purchase an additional 750,000 mandatory convertible preferred shares. Nabors intends to use the net proceeds from these offerings to repay borrowings outstanding under its revolving credit facility, which it may re-borrow from time to time for the repayment of other indebtedness, and for general corporate purposes.

Each mandatory convertible preferred share is expected to have a liquidation preference of $50 per share.

Unless earlier converted, each mandatory convertible preferred share will automatically convert into a variable number of Nabors’ common shares on the mandatory conversion date, which is expected to be May 1, 2021. The number of Nabors’ common shares issuable on mandatory conversion will be determined based on the average of the volume-weighted average prices of Nabors’ common shares over the 20-trading day period commencing on and including the 21st scheduled trading day immediately preceding May 1, 2021. The dividend rate and the conversion terms of the mandatory convertible preferred shares will be determined at the time of pricing of the offering of the mandatory convertible preferred shares.

The offerings are subject to market and other conditions, and there can be no assurance as to whether or when the offerings may be completed or the actual size or timing of either offering.

The offerings of these securities are being made pursuant to an effective shelf registration statement previously filed by Nabors with the Securities and Exchange Commission (“SEC”). The common shares and the mandatory convertible preferred shares may only be offered by means of a prospectus supplement and accompanying base prospectus, each forming a part of the shelf registration statement.
